

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
AHN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons in be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases deemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness, sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache, and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.
So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ring-worms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

MARYLAND LEGISLATURE.

Friday, Dec. 7.

The Clerk of the Senate delivers the following communication from the Executive.

IN COUNCIL.

Annapolis, Dec. 1, 1817.

Gentlemen,

In conformity with the resolutions of your Honorable body, at its last session, imposing certain duties upon this department, we have the honor to state that the Hon. John C. Herbert, and James Fenwick, Esq. were appointed commissioners, on the part of the state of Maryland, to meet such commissioners as might be appointed on the part of the commonwealth of Virginia, to arrange and devise some efficient mode of protecting the fisheries on the Potomac river, by inhibiting steam boat navigation on said river during the month of April. No official notification of the appointment of commissioners, on the part of Virginia, has been communicated to this department, arising from any disinclination to co-operate in the prosecution of the measure, but, as we have to believe, proceeding wholly from an adjournment of its legislature before any communication from this department could be received by it.

We have the honor further to state, that twenty five copies of the new edition of the laws of the United States, printed under the direction of the secretary of state, and the attorney general of the United States, have been purchased, and partially distributed.
It will be recollect'd by your honorable body, that the sum of eight thousand dollars was placed at the disposal of the executive, for the purpose of collecting the public arms, camp equipage, and munitions of war generally, which had been distributed among the several regiments during the late war. This measure was recommended by the executive at the last general assembly, with a view to prevent emigrants to the Western states and territories from carrying the public arms out of this state. It is to be lamented that this resolution cannot be carried into effect, as fully and effectually as could be wished, owing to the want of system and discipline in the militia of the state, arising as well from the resignations of militia officers, as from the defects in the system itself.

Your honorable body are well aware, that by the law of the United States, and the rules of the war department, it is required of the adjutant generals of the respective states, that they make an annual return of the militia of the state to the inspector and adjutant general of the United States. As no provision by law now exists by which this object can be effected, we feel it our duty to recommend to your honorable body, the enactment of a law upon the subject, making it the duty of the major generals commanding divisions, to make return annually to the adjutant general of the number of militia in their respective divisions, and compelling the brigadiers, colonels, lieutenant colonels, majors and captains, to make such like annual return to their respective immediate military superiors, under such penalties and forfeitures as to the wisdom of the legislature may appear expedient and necessary.

We deem it further our duty to state to your honorable body, that the claims and vouchers against the United States for military expenditures have been fully arranged, and are now in a state of complete preparation, and will be submitted to the general government by the states' agent as soon as possible; and we have the strongest reasons to believe and hope, will receive the early attention of the general government; the principle obstacle to an adjustment, being the difficulty of fixing on some general principal which may be found applicable to the claims of the state generally. The law of the last session appointing an agent to collect the states' debts has not been carried into effect, as the agent appointed by the law has not accepted of the appointment. We are of opinion that this law must fail in its effect, so long as the amount of compensation which the agent shall receive for his services is uncertain, and depends upon the amount of the valid debts; we therefore respectfully recommend the appointment of an agent, with a certain annual salary.

Contracts have been made with the Registers of the Land Office for an Index of the names of all the lands surveyed and patented, and of the unpatented certificates, since the revolution to the present time, which work is in a state of considerable forwardness.

We herewith transmit a copy of a work entitled "Rules and Regulations for the field exercise and manoeuvres of infantry, compiled and adapted to the organization of the army of the United States, agreeably to a resolve of Congress," together with an accompanying letter from the Author.

We also herewith transmit a proposition of Nathan Starr, of Connecticut, offering to contract with the state of Maryland for any number of swords which they may require.

Which are respectfully submitted to the inspection and consideration of your honorable body.

We have the honor to be, with high consideration and respect, your obedient servants,

C. RIDGELY, of Hamp.
The Hon'ble the General Assembly.
Adjourned.

Interesting to Young Ladies.
The following advertisement, on a subject highly interesting to many of our readers, is copied from the Boston Centinel of Wednesday last.—The editor of that paper remarks, "we presume the author of it to be in earnest, as he inclosed three dollars in it to pay for the insertion."

NOTICE.
A young gentleman, of good family and estate, aged about 23 years, who has a fine house, well furnished, wishes to obtain a partner for life, who possesses the following qualifications: a humble heart, subdued and influenced by grace, which prosperity will neither too much elate, nor adversity deject, a uniform, mild, and amiable temper, which the trifling incipents of life will not easily irritate: a well cultivated mind, with an improved taste for reading: graceful and pleasing manners, rather modest than assuming: habits of prudence and industry: a decided partiality for domestic enjoyments: a good healthy constitution, respectable pa-rantage, and a fortune of from Ten to Twenty Thousand Dollars.

If there is a young Lady within three hundred miles of this place, between 18 and 22 years of age, who really possesses these qualifications, and is willing to unite herself with a man whose happiness would consist in endeavours to render her happy; and whose united fortunes, under the blessing of Providence and frugal management, would render them independent and even affluent through life; she may open the way to become acquainted with one who would endeavour to be such, by addressing a line prior to the first day of January next, with the postage paid, to J. Z. D. to the care of the editor of the Columbian Centinel, in Boston, stating her place of residence, with such other particulars as may be considered necessary.

BANKRUPT LAW.

That this country should be for many years without a system of Bankrupt Law which reason could approve good, policy dictate, and common honesty sanction, may well be regarded as a matter of astonishment—and this astonishment must be augmented and mingled with no small portion of regret, when it is considered that every state either groans under the weight of unequal and mischievous laws laying unfortunate debtors at the mercy of some of their creditors, to the possible exclusion of others, or is disgraced by a code operating in the directly opposite extreme, of deliberately, and by sober judicial process, robbing the fair creditor of his property, and absolving the debtor from his just and undeniable, and undeniable obligations.

It is known that this discreditable anomaly in our laws had its origin in that mischievous party spirit, under the influence of which, things and persons were swept away by whole classes and denominations, and when not the beneficial effect to be produced by a given measure, the motives, or the rationality of the principles on which it was grounded, but the facility of its application to the purposes of faction, and its harmony with the passions of a party, were, by some men, allowed any weight in the adoption or rejection of a law. In what particular way any of those considerations could have been forced into operation against an uniform system of bankruptcy, it might puzzle even those who have in practice yielded to them to tell.—But nothing is more clear than this, that those who oppose it do not do so, out of any particular concern for creditors, since most of the states suffer from insolvent laws which are universally condemned for their disregard of the rights of creditors, and others under laws which arm creditors with the claws of harpies.

We speak within bounds when we say that there are at this moment at least seventy thousand persons in the United States who are pinned down to penury and suppression of enterprise by debts, from which nothing but a general bankrupt act can relieve them to such an effect as would restore them to the exercise of their honest arts and industry.— Most of those have families; so that we do not trespass on probability when we say that there are two hundred and eighty thousand mouths whose food and subsistence will, in a great measure, depend upon the fate of the bankrupt law now introduced into Congress.

Legislatures are no less guardians of the morals than of the lives and property of society. It would be easy to demonstrate that the present condition of the insolvent laws of our country is, in a high degree, subversive of the moral fabric of society; and, in being so, productive of causes for national detraction. Persons situated as we have described may reasonably be supposed more than others liable to temptation, and subject to be betrayed, or rather driven, into tricks not worthy of a strictly upright character—they are sentenced to a sad alternative—afflicting is the choice that is left them—to forego their purity, or consign their wives and children to want—want, never to terminate till the grave closes on their labor and their woes.

Can then a legislative body, whose duty it is not more to provide for the security and comfort than to make allowance for the infirmities of their fellow citizens, hesitate to interpose in this case?—to feel for the necessities of so very large a portion of them, or to acknowledge, that in failing to do so, they are in some degree accessories before the fact to all the evils which must ensue and daily accumulate upon the heads of the unfortunate from their neglect of this most interesting subject.

That there should be laws to exonerate debtors who have become insolvent by any of the reverses to which it is the nature of commerce to be exposed, upon condition of such debtors surrendering all his property, will hardly be denied; since we have abundance of laws intended to have that effect—but which from the imperfection of their provisions, only produce the exoneration of the debtor without enforcing upon him the performance of the condition annexed to it. By various stratagems, the debtor so contrives it as to be exonerated, and to give the creditors not an atom of property—and this has been so constantly practised with success, that the creditors hopeless of getting anything, decline adding the vain labour of looking after the insolvents property, to their previous losses.

On the other hand, the debtor has to complain that after giving up his all, which by the law he is supposed to do, his future industry is clogged by the debts from which he obtains only a temporary absolution. This is a prodigious error—it is little less absurd than it would be to manumit a slave, and set him forth handcuffed with iron, upon the world.

The first snow fell in Alexandria yesterday morning, to the depth of nearly two inches. From the extreme humidity of the atmosphere immediately afterwards, it in a great measure disappeared from the ground before night.

The celebrated Cleopatra's Barge, we learn, is expected to arrive at the Navy Yard in this city, for the gratification, no doubt, of the legislative and executive curiosity, as well as of the citizens of the district. [Wash. City Gaz.

Capture of the traitor Mina, by colonel Orrantia.

H. E. the viceroy has just received by an extraordinary courier the following communication:

MOST EXCELLENT SIR.—Long live the king. The comt. of Silas, under date of the 27th, at 7 o'clock in the evening, writes me as follows:

ESTEEMED SIR.—At last we have obtained the fruit of our labors—Mina has been taken alive, and is now entering this place. They also bring the head of Moreno—they have taken the two other Herreras, Frenchman and other officers of their infantry. We killed several when we attacked them, which was by surprise. All this has been achieved by Senor Orrantia, who left here at 10 o'clock at night with cavalry for el Baradito, near el Hachiqueza; which news, so interesting, I communicate for the satisfaction of your excellency, and of all the good and loving subjects of our sovereign, and I shall consider it very complete if it gets to hand as expeditiously as I wish.

God preserve your excellency many years. Irapato, Oct. 28, 1817, 2 A.M.

Ruiz de Apodaca.

His excellency, not wishing to delay one moment the communication of such agreeable intelligence to the faithful vas-als of the king our lord, has commanded the immediate insertion of it in an extraordinary gazette, expecting every moment to receive the particulars of this important event.

FIRE AT ST. JOHNS.

By the schooner Parker, captain Boyd, which arrived this morning, in eight days from Halifax, we learn that a great fire occurred in the latter part of November at St. Johns, Newfoundland, which destroyed about 250 buildings, including stores, dwelling houses, &c. In one of the stores (belonging to Mr. Marchbank's) 800 barrels of flour were consumed. The fire originated in a cooper's shop. The loss in buildings and other property is estimated at 200,000 pounds sterling.— Many of the inhabitants lost their all, and are reduced to a state of extreme poverty; and the whole town, in consequence of the destruction of flour and provisions, are suffering severe distress.

Immediately after the fire, the civil authority laid an embargo on all vessels in port, and chartered them for the purpose of transporting those of the inhabitants who could leave the town to other places for subsistence. Several of the vessels, filled with passengers, arrived at Halifax on the 1st instant; and the governor, on learning the extent of this calamity, ordered a number of small vessels to proceed to St. John's, without delay, with supplies for the remaining inhabitants.

By this arrival we have Halifax papers to the 29th ult. They were, however, published before the information of the fire at St. Johns had reached Halifax.

INDIAN WAR.

The marching of troops to the frontier, and the other hostile preparations that are making, give to the approaching conflict with the Seminole Indians, all the pomp and parade of war. Within a few days, several companies have passed through here, on their way to the place of rendezvous. The detachment from this state amounting to nearly 1000 men, assembled at Fort Hawkins yesterday, and will resume their march in a day or two—500 friendly Creeks, headed by their distinguished warrior, McIntosh, have espoused our cause, and are hastening with alacrity to the scene of battle —General Gaines has with him, at Fort Scott, 700 regulars. The whole, when united, will be a formidable force in Indian warfare. On the other hand, the strength of the Seminoles has been also considerably increased by reinforcements —all the disaffected Creeks & Cherokees, and they are not a few, having gone to their assistance. A bloody conflict may therefore be expected, if the Indians determine to give us battle in an open and spirited manner; but if they seek refuge in the impenetrable swamps, and other hiding places with which the country they inhabit abounds—or, if the progress of our arms should be checked, by an unwillingness in the commanding general to enter the Spanish territory, the chastisement these savages merit, and which otherwise awaits them, may probably be averted.

The subjoined intelligence of the commencement of hostilities, was received by the executive on Thursday last, and immediately issued from this office in an extra sheet, that our frontier citizens, exposed to danger, might be put on their guard against those predatory attacks of the Indians, which seldom fail to follow such an occurrence. The governor immediately ordered out the Pulaski troops of cavalry, a company of infantry from Wilkinson, and another from Laurens, for the protection of the frontier below Hartford. Other measures of defence will rendezvous. The detachment from a state amounting to nearly 1000 men, embarked at Fort Hawkins yesterday, will resume their march in a day or 500 friendly Creeks, headed by a distinguished warrior, McIntosh, have espoused our cause, and are hastening with alacrity to the scene of battle. General Gaines has with him, at Fort Scott, 700 regulars. The whole, when joined, will be a formidable force in Indian warfare. On the other hand, the strength of the Seminoles has been considerably increased by reinforcements, all the disaffected Creeks & Cherokees, and they are not a few, having gone to our assistance. A bloody conflict may therefore be expected, if the Indians determine to give us battle in an open and virulent manner; but if they seek refuge in the impenetrable swamps, and other places with which the country they inhabit abounds—or, if the progress of our arms should be checked, by an unwillingness in the commanding general to enter the Spanish territory, the chastisement of these savages merit, and which otherwise awaits them, may probably be deferred.

The subjoined intelligence of the commencement of hostilities, was received by the executive on Thursday last, and immediately issued from this office in an extra sheet, that our frontier citizens, exposed to danger, might be put on their guard against those predatory attacks of the Indians, which seldom fail to follow such an occurrence. The governor immediately ordered out the Palashi troops of cavalry, a company of infantry from Wilkinson, and another from Laurens, for the protection of the frontier below latter. Other measures of defence will be adopted, should they prove necessary.

copy of a letter from Maj. Gen. Gaines to the governor of Georgia, dated at Fort Scott, (near the confluence of the Flint and Chatahochie rivers) November 21st, 1817.

81.—The first brigade of U. S. troops arrived at this place on the 19th instant, had previously sent an Indian runner to notify the Fowl Town chief Ene-he-munny, of my arrival, and, with a view to ascertain whether his hostile temper had abated, requested him to visit me—he replied that he had already said to the commanding officer here, all he had to say, and that he would not come.

He had warned Major Twigg not to cross or cut a stick of wood on the east side of Flint river, alledging that the land was his, that he was directed by the savages above, and below, to protect and defend it, and he should do so. This being the talk referred to, and his town having continued to be hostile ever since the last war, having participated in the predatory war carried on for some time past against the Georgia frontier, I yesterday detached 250 men (supposed to be about the strength of the town) under the command of Major Twigg, with orders to bring to me the chief and warriors, and in the event of resistance, to treat them as enemies. The detachment arrived at the town early this morning & were instantly fired upon, but without effect. The fire was briskly returned by the detachment, and the Indians put to flight with the loss of four warriors slain—and, as there is reason to believe, many more wounded.

Among the articles found in the house of the chief, was a British uniform coat (scarlet) with a pair of gold epaulettes; and a certificate signed by a British captain of marines, "Robert White, in the absence of Col. Nichols," stating that the chief had always been a true and faithful friend of the British."

The reports of friendly Indians concur in estimating the number of hostile Indians, including the Red Sticks and Seminoles, at more than 2000—Independent of the blacks at and near Swaney, within 120 miles of this place, amounting to near 400 men, and increasing by the addition of every runaway from Georgia able to get to them. The friendly Indians inform me that the hostile party and blacks have been promised a British force to assist them from New Providence. This promise though made by Nicholls and Woodbine, is nevertheless relied on by these deluded wretches. Who have no doubt will sue for peace as soon as they find their hopes of British aid to be without foundation.

I have called the militia from Fort Hawkins to this place, and have directed Colonel Bearly to confer with your excellency upon the subject of an additional battalion for the protection of the frontier from Oakmoo to St. Mary's.

I have the honor to be, most respectfully, your obedient servant,

EDMUND P. GAINES,
Maj. Gen. commanding.

Sully for Sale.

THIS estate, situated in the county of Fairfax, twenty two miles from Alexandria, and the same distance from Georgetown, contains about seven hundred and fifty acres. Little River Turnpike passes through it half a mile from the dwelling house. The situation is handsome, and remarkably healthy; the water is good and abundant. The soil which was originally excellent, has for some years past had the advantage of improving husbandry. Plaster of Paris acting with powerful and immediate effect on all grasses and grains. The fields present a good surface for cultivation; and those, now untilled, are covered with red clover. The orchards are very large and thrifty; the collection of fruit is choice and various. The mansion is spacious and well constructed; the out-houses are conveniently situated, and the whole have been lately thoroughly repaired and painted. The farm houses, which are all nearly new, are expensive and excellent in their kind.

For a gentleman of leisure this would be a delightful residence; and a profitable estate for an active farmer. The title is indisputable, and perfectly unincumbered.

A number of well taught orderly young men, with good stocks and farming utensils of all kinds, and the crops of the present year, if desired, will be at the command of the purchaser.

Application may be made to the subscriber, living on the premises, next the post-office at Pleasant Valley, in Fairfax.

Trustee's Sale.

UNDER the authority, and by virtue of a decree of the honorable the High Court of Chancery of the State of Maryland, the subscriber will offer at public sale, on the premises, on Saturday the 20th day of December, inst. at 12 M. if fair; if not, the next fair lawful day, at the same hour, all the Land of the late Richard Henderson, deceased, situated in Prince George's County, Md. and adjoining or near the town of Bladensburg, containing between 6 and 700 acres, of which a survey and plat will be made previous to the sale, and then exhibited.

These lands are beautifully situated, and in an excellent neighborhood; one third part, or nearly so, is in wood, and about 50 acres of bottom or meadow, which, with some improvement, is capable of producing large crops of timothy, a certain and never failing market for which is found in the City of Washington, about 4 miles distant. This property, lying below Bladensburg, on the Eastern Branch, has the advantage of water conveyance for its produce to the City, Georgetown or Alexandria at a small expense.

Intending purchasers it is supposed, will, by themselves or agents, examine the Lands and determine for themselves as to the quality and local advantages thereof, and therefore a more particular description is deemed unnecessary. Mr. Wilson, residing on the premises, will shew them.

The conditions of sale are, that the purchaser shall give bond with security to the Trustee, to be approved by him, for paying one 3d. of the purchase money with interest within 12 months, one other 3d with interest within 18 months, and the residue with interest within 2 years from the day of sale—and upon the sale being ratified by the Chancellor, and on receipt of the purchase money, a conveyance shall be made in terms of the said decree. Also, one other Piece of Ground, beginning 176 feet 7 inches from the intersection of Prince and Payne streets, and running southwardly with Payne-street 60 feet. And another Piece of Ground, beginning at an alley laid off by J. V. Thomas, at its intersection with Alfred-street, and binding north on said street 57 feet 6 inches.

The evidences of title and a more detailed description may be seen upon application to the subscriber. COLIN AULD, Trustee. December 13 tuff

Public Sale.

ON the 10th January next, if fair, if not, the next fair day, will be offered at public auction, on the premises, a certain tract or parcel of LAND, situate in the county of Loudoun, near the Gun Spring, and at the intersection of the Little River Turnpike and Centreville Road, near the 26 mile stone, containing 732 acres. Those lands are two third parts of the lands formerly belonging to Robt. Lyle, sen. deceased, in those counties, and divided by commissioners appointed under the authority of court.

It is presumed and wished that all who are inclined to become purchasers, will examine the lands; and, therefore, it becomes unnecessary to be more particular. They will be divided into such portions as may be desired; and the terms of payment will be one third part in hand, and the remainder by equal instalments in one and two years, secured by bond, and bearing interest from the day of sale, with approved security.

Sales at Auction.

On Wednesdays and Saturdays,

WILL BE OFFERED,

At the Auction Office on Union street, Between King and Prince—

A N extensive and general assortment of seasonable Goods, of British, French, German, India, and Domestic Manufacture, which will be well selected, and well worthy the attention of town and country merchants and others; as the undersigned will be abundantly supplied from the manufacturers and their friends in Boston, New York and Philadelphia—which will give to gentlemen an opportunity of laying in their goods on good terms as they can be in those cities, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

A dose never fails to remove a cold it taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

The particular description of goods will be advertised in the papers of the day.

Consignments strictly attended to and liberal advances made if desirable.
